Don't Be Deceived

[Contributed by Appomattox Democrat The Republican party is very desirous of breaking the "Solid South". Heretofore they have used the allurements of politi cal patronage, and other inducements to get the voters to break away from their allegiance to the Democratic party and place Virginia in the Republican column. They also advise us of the great need of a "strong minority party" in the State to curb any tendency to profligacy on the part those in power. But such appeals have signally failed in the accomplishment of their purpose. The Democratic par y has long been recognized as the hope of white supremacy in government, which has meant more to the southern people than every other issue. It has taken a long time for this fact to impress itself on the Republican mind. At last they seem to have gotten the idea. Dr. Jeckyl has made his appearance before us, all shaven and shorn, renouncing the Mr. Hyde of yesterday and asking for an opportunity to do for the State what he claims to have done for himself. The Republicans want to be entrust. ed with bringing about alleged much needed reforms. The colored voter, who has hereto fore composed the strength of the Republican ranks has been ruthlessly expelled from their camp to remove any apprehen sion on the score of white supremacy. Not only has the colored brother been put out of the councils of the "Lilly Whites", but even a prospect of colored votes being cast for their candidates causes them alarm. A few Anderson but-
